FINDINGS AND DECISION

The duly constituted Electoral Board, consisting of Board of Election Commissioners of the City of Chicago Commissioners Langdon D. Neal, Richard A. Cowen and Marisel A. Hernandez, organized by law in response to a Call issued by Langdon D. Neal, Chairman of said Electoral Board, for the purpose of hearing and passing upon objections (“Objections”) of Wilbon Brown (“Objector”) to the nomination papers (“Nomination Papers”) of Sidney H. Brooks, candidate for the office of Alderman of the 7th Ward of the City of Chicago (“Candidate”) to be elected at the Municipal General Election to be held on February 22, 2011, having convened on December 6, 2010, at 9:00 a.m., in Room 800, 69 West Washington Street, Chicago Illinois, and having heard and determined the Objections to the Nomination Papers in the above-entitled matter, finds that:

1. Objections to the Nomination Papers of the Candidate herein were duly and timely filed.
2. The said Electoral Board has been legally constituted according to the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. A Call to the hearing on said Objections was duly issued by the Chairman of the Electoral Board and served upon the members of the Electoral Board, the Objector and the Candidate, by registered or certified mail and by Sheriff's service, as provided by statute.

4. A public hearing was held on these Objections commencing on December 6, 2010 and was continued from time to time.

5. The Electoral Board assigned this matter to Hearing Officer William J. Kresse for further hearings and proceedings.

6. The Objector and the Candidate were directed by the Electoral Board to appear before the Hearing Officer on the date and at the time designated in the Call. The following persons, among others, were present at such hearing; the Objector, Wilbon Brown, by attorney, Adam Lasker; and the Candidate, Sidney H. Brooks, pro se.

7. The Objector alleges that because the Candidate used a Statement of Candidacy that is used in a Primary Election, the Nomination Papers are fatally defective.

8. The Hearing Officer determined that the use of a Primary Statement of Candidacy was not fatally defective to the Candidate's Nomination Papers. Dix v Terry, 03-EB-ALD-071, CBEC, January 31, 2003.

9. The Electoral Board finds that a review of the Statement of Candidacy indicates that while said Statement is generally the form used for a Primary Election, the Statement contains no reference to party affiliation and, as the Hearing Officer found, there is no basis to invalidate the Nomination Papers.

10. The Objector alleges that the Nomination Papers contain certain signatures that are invalid and the Hearing Officer ordered that an examination of the voter registration records be conducted by clerks and agents under the Board's direction and supervision, in accordance with the laws of Illinois and the rules of the Board.

11. The Hearing Officer directed all parties to appear and be present, either personally and/or by their authorized representatives during this records examination.

12. The Candidate and/or her duly authorized representative was present during the examination of the registration records.

13. The Objector and/or his duly authorized representative were present during the examination of the registration records.

14. The examination of the registration records was completed and the Electoral Board hereby adopts and incorporates by reference the results of the records examination conducted by its clerks and agents. The written report of the result of the registration records examination is contained in the Board's file in this case and a copy has been provided or made available to the parties.

15. The results of the records examination indicate that:

A. The minimum number of valid signatures required by law for placement on the ballot for the office in question is 240.

B. The number of purportedly valid signatures appearing on the nominating petition filed by the Candidate total 900.

C. The number of signatures deemed invalid because of objections sustained as a result of the records examination total 474.

D. The remaining number of signatures deemed valid as a result of the records examination total 426.

16. The Electoral Board finds that the number of valid signatures appearing on the Candidate's nominating petition following completion of the records examination exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to be placed upon the ballot as a candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 7th Ward of the City of Chicago.

17. No motions were filed by either party pursuant to Rule 8 of the Board's Rules of Procedure.

18. The Hearing Officer has tendered to the Electoral Board a report and recommended decision. Based upon the evidence presented, the Hearing Officer found that the Candidate's Nomination Papers contained 426 valid signatures, which exceeds the minimum number of valid signatures required by law to be placed upon the ballot as a candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 7th Ward of the City of Chicago, and that the Candidate's Nomination Papers should be found valid.

19. The Electoral Board, having considered the evidence and arguments tendered by the parties and the Hearing Officer's report of recommended findings and conclusions of law, hereby adopts the Hearing Officer's recommended findings and conclusions of law.

20. For the reasons stated above, the Electoral Board finds that the Candidate has a sufficient number of valid signatures on her nominating petitions and that the Nomination Papers of Sidney H. Brooks are, therefore, valid.

21. The Electoral Board further finds that additional objections were filed against the Candidate's Nomination Papers in Related Case 11-EB-ALD-247 and that said objections were withdrawn.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Objections of Wilbon Brown to the Nomination Papers of Sidney H. Brooks, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 7th Ward of the City of Chicago, are hereby OVERRULED and said Nomination Papers are hereby declared VALID and the name of SIDNEY H. BROOKS, candidate for election to the office of Alderman of the 7th Ward of the City of Chicago, SHALL be printed on the official ballot for the Municipal General Election to be held on February 22, 2011.

Dated: Chicago, Illinois, on January 13, 2011.

Langdon D. Neal, Chairman

Richard A. Cowen, Commissioner
