Additionally, every precinct polling place in Chicago for Election Day will have a touchscreen voting machine and audio ballot in 12 languages: English, Spanish, Chinese (Mandarin dialect), Hindi, Korean, Tagalog, Polish, Gujarati, Urdu, Ukrainian, Arabic, and Russian.

Please note: On Election Day, Chicago voters must go to their assigned precinct polling place OR to any Early Voting site that is open as a ward vote center on Election Day (Nov. 8) from 6:00am to 7:00pm. A voter cannot vote in a precinct polling place other than their own assigned location (or at a ward vote center) on Election Day (Nov. 8).

Voters can find their assigned precinct polling place, sample ballots, and more at the YOUR VOTER INFORMATION page at chicagoelections.gov, including in Spanish, Chinese, Hindi, Korean, Tagalog, and Polish.

The Chicago Board of Elections is still recruiting bilingual election judges for Election Day on November 8th. Judges make up to $230 for the day and can apply at: <https://pollworker.chicagoelections.gov/>
