

For Immediate Release

City will have 51 locations open Feb. 9 thru Feb. 21

Early Voting and In-Person Registration

Early Voting begins Mon., Feb. 9 at 51 locations in Chicago, and each site also will offer voter-registration.

Every site will be open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Five sites also will be open on Sun., Feb. 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.: the Election Board at 69 W. Washington St., the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Center, Mount Greenwood Park, the West Side Learning Center and Welles Park.

Voters don't need a reason or excuse to use Early Voting, but they do need government-issued photo ID. Chicago voters may use any early voting site in the city, regardless of where they live.

"Early Voting means flexibility and convenience," said Election Board Chairman Langdon D. Neal. "People may cast their ballots when and where they want. This way, there's no need to worry about a scheduling conflict with work or day-care or bad weather."

Voters who need to a file name or address change, or who need to register for the first time, will need to present two forms of ID, at least one of which shows the voter's current address. Voters who register or file a name or address change must be ready to vote during that same visit.

For more information, Chicago voters may visit chicagoelections.com or call 312.269.7900 (tty 312.269.0027 for the hearing impaired). Voters also may refer to this week's household mailing, which provides the Election Day polling place for that voter's address and at least one Early Voting site.
