Polling Place changes in 18 precincts

On April 2, voters in 18 Chicago precincts will be casting ballots at different polling places than they used at the Feb. 26 Election.

Wherever possible, the Election Board maintains the 2,069 precinct polling places in the same locations from February to April. However, for reasons beyond the control of the Election Board, there are occasions when the same location is not available for the second election.

Mailings have been sent to voters in the affected precincts, and signs will be posted at the Feb. 26 polling places to alert voters to the April 2 sites.

One of the “changes” involves simply a new name – from a community center to a store front.

(See Page 2 for list of precincts and polling places that changed.)
